New AI Service “Buddy” Revolutionizes Project Management Learning and Practice

New York, USA / Munich, Germany – 6 May 2024

In a groundbreaking collaboration, Dan Ryan, a renowned project management trainer from New York, USA, and Oliver F. Lehmann, his esteemed colleague from Munich, Germany, have unveiled their latest innovation: an Artificial Intelligence service named “Buddy.” This cutting-edge tool is designed to transform the way project managers learn and handle their daily tasks.

Buddy is not just another AI; it is a specialized assistant tailored specifically for the needs of project management professionals and PMP (Project Management Professional) exam candidates. Developed with the combined expertise of Ryan and Lehmann, who are both leaders in the field of project management education, Buddy offers real-time answers to complex questions, facilitates learning, and enhances decision-making in day-to-day project management activities.

Key Features of Buddy:

- Free Usage:
During a limited introduction period, Buddy is free to use.
- Interactive Learning:
Buddy helps PMP candidates prepare for their exams by providing detailed explanations and guidance on practice questions.
- Daily Task Assistance:
From scheduling and resource allocation to risk assessment and stakeholder communication, Buddy assists project managers in their daily operations, ensuring efficiency and accuracy.
- 24/7 Availability:
Accessible at any time, Buddy is designed to provide support whenever it's needed, making it an invaluable tool for professionals in different time zones.
- A Relatable persona:
Buddy's look and feel helps users feel comfortable with the service and find way swiftly to take benefit from it.

Benefits for Aspiring Project Management Professionals:

- Enhanced Learning Experience:
With Buddy, learners can grasp complex project management concepts more quickly and effectively.
- Increased Productivity:
By automating routine tasks and providing instant insights, Buddy allows project managers to focus on strategic decision-making and leadership.
- Customized Support:
Whether preparing for an exam or managing a complex project, Buddy adapts to the specific needs of each user, offering personalized advice and support.

Dan Ryan commented on the launch, saying, "Buddy is more than just technology; it's a partner that grows with you. It understands the challenges of project management and provides solutions that are not only theoretical but practically applicable."

Oliver F. Lehmann added, "With Buddy, we are setting a new standard in the integration of artificial intelligence in project management. Our goal was to create a tool that not only helps in passing exams but also in executing real-world projects more effectively and efficiently."

Buddy is now available for use and promises to be a game-changer in the field of project management training and practice.
